1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 7/31/06 has been entered.

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-5,7-14,16-18,20 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Collier 5,704,189.

Collier discloses a system and method applying a code to a cable (col 6 lines 54-56). It is disclosed that an entry is made into memory for retaining location information, including intermediate locations of the cable (col 7 lines 60-63) (col 12 lines 57-67). It is disclosed that the code is imprinted at spaced intervals on the cable (col 11 lines 55-60) and thus printing near each terminus of the cable is inherent. The code may be a bar code (col 11 lines 10-15). It is disclosed that a gun reads the code, i.e. hand held code reader (col 11 lines 62 - column 12 line 6).

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 2876

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 6,15,19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Collier 5,704,189. Collier discloses that which is seen above. Collier does not disclose that the hand held device is wireless. Official Notice is taken that wirelessly connected hand held bar code readers are old and well known in the art. It would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to use a well known wireless bar code reader in the system of Collier. This would allow for greater mobility and use in locations remote from a host.

6. Applicant's arguments filed 7/31/06 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues that the prior art of record fails to teach the "ordered" steps as now claimed. The examiner does not contest that the prior art does not specifically recite the "order", however, as currently claimed, the "ordered" is a preamble limitation which is not currently brought to life within the body of the claims. It is suggested that the "order" be specifically recited in the body of the claims with such terms as "first", "second", "third" or "followed by" or simply "then" placed in between the steps.
